Forest Service Museum Honor Roll Nomination

For a one-time donation of $100 or more, the National Museum of Forest Service History (NMFSH) offers a special Forest Service Museum Honor Roll for living and deceased people. Current, former or retired employees; individuals, groups and events who have contributed to the mission of the Forest Service are eligible. A Memorial Grove has been planted on the museum grounds honoring everyone who has contributed to the mission of the Forest Service. People are recognized in a Honor Roll book and on the Museum's web site rather than having names on individual trees in the Memorial Grove. Nominations are subject to approval by the NMFSH. Please contact the NMFSH if you have any questions.
