"National Forest lands have enriched my life personally, and contributed in many ways to the history of our nation. The NMFSH can help everyone--children, adults, resource managers--learn about the Forest Service's past, providing a deeper understanding of public land policy and management to guide us in the future."

-Barb Springer Beck, President, Beck Consulting, former District Ranger, Region 1

About Us

The mission of the Museum is to preserve the history of the U.S. Forest Service and to interpret the conservation story, giving due consideration to the roles and partnerships that have enriched the forest and grasslands of the United States, and to present this historical information with integrity.
