Forest Service Museum Honor Roll Nomination

For a one-time donation of $100 or more, the National Museum of Forest Service History (NMFSH) recognizes those who have contributed to the mission of the Forest Service. Anyone is eligible, including current, former and retired employees of the Forest Service, and people or groups whose work has supported the Forest Service mission. The Honor Roll can also commemorate special events in Forest Service history.

A Memorial Grove on the National Conservation Legacy and Education Center grounds in Missoula honors everyone who has contributed to the mission of the Forest Service. Honorees are recognized in an Honor Roll book and on the Museum's web site

Nominations are subject to approval by the NMFSH. Please contact the NMFSH if you have any questions.
